

Significant Tree Register

Registration Form

Tree No: 12

Genus: Corymbia

Species: citriodora

Common name: Lemon Scented Gum

Location: Drill Hall

Location on Property: On the verge of 53 Murray Street, Bayswater

Height : 28m

Canopy Width: N/S: 29m E/W: 21m

Diameter of the trunk at breast height: 81.3cm

Diameter of the trunk at ground level: 97.5cm

Condition: Average Age: Mature

Statement of significance:

This is a group of six trees which were likely planted following construction of the Hall just after 1901.

They are large well developed specimens of Lemon Scented Gum that stand out in the area due to their size.

