

Donation - Individuals Application Form

DONATION INFORMATION

KEY INFORMATION

The City of Bayswater is pleased to support residents attending representative events. The following selection criteria are designed to make this a fair and equitable process for all residents.

- You can help us by providing typed or neatly handwritten information so that we can assess it quickly and provide you with a response.
- We need to receive your donation request at least 14 days before your event.
- If you require assistance with your application please contact the City's Community Development Support Officer, on (08) 9272 0622.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND GUIDELINES

The City of Bayswater each year allocates a small donations budget to build the capacity of its residents and local community groups. Applications for donations can be made at any time but are subject to conditions.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

- Residents nominated to represent their club/organisation at a WA, National or International event.
- Residents travelling to pursue specific initiatives.

Preference will be given to supporting events/initiatives which promote personal and leadership development or community involvement.

Note: Excursions organised as part of the school's curriculum are not eligible for assistance.

FUNDING LEVELS AND CONDITIONS:

- To support the costs of travelling/accommodation to compete to the value indicated on the table below.
- Only one eligible donation or grant of any kind per household will be considered during a financial year across all funding streams.
- Letters of support must be provided by the organising body/club for each applicant.
