

Request for Written Planning Advice

What information can I ask the City for advice on?

Only basic planning advice can be provided in response to a request for written planning advice and response will be limited to provision of technical advice and interpretation of applicable planning requirements under the City's Town Planning Scheme 24, the City's Local Planning Policies and the R-Codes.

The following queries cannot be responded to via a request for written planning advice:

- Pre-lodgement assessment of proposed development plans.
- Analysis of various options for the proposed development.
- Whether the City can support a proposed variation to any development standard (which can only be dealt with through the development application process).

Note: For Clause 61A Deemed-to-Comply checks, please lodge a 'Development Application Exemption' with the City.

When can I expect a response?

The City will endeavour to process all written planning advice requests within 14 calendar days from receipt of payment. Please note that the nature of the query may require additional time for the City to respond. The City's officers will advise if additional time is required in the first instance.

How can I submit this Request for Written Planning Advice?

The request is required to be made in writing to planningreferrals@bayswater.wa.gov.au and will incur a fee in accordance with the City's Schedule of Fees ($73.00). The City will provide a response via email.
